

Operation Dynamo

1940

By Howie 😊

Dates

It happened between 26th May to the 4th of June 1940

Where?

- It happened in the north of France in a port in Dunkirk

Why?

- Operation dynamo was a emergency response to the English and French troops being trapped by the Germans in the coast of France .the German Leader was called Adolf Hitler and the English prime minister was called Winston Churchill

Big isn't always the best

- When the troops were trapped the big boats were not able to be to near to the shore so Churchill called for the tiny boats to save the troops. And it worked many of these boats were owned by brave fishermen. 🚣🚣🚣🚣

Results

- 850 little boat's were used in response to the rescue .in all about 350,000 people were rescued.
