

National Government Quiz

1. Where are the laws of Great Britain made?

2. What is the group of people with the authority to govern the country called?

3. What is the group of senior ministers called?

4. What is the head of the government known as?

5. What job does the civil service do?

6. Which three institutions were formed after devolution?

7. Can you name the prime minister we have today?

8. Can you name any other senior ministers?

National Government Quiz

1. Where are the laws of Great Britain made?

2. What is the group of people with the authority to govern the country called?

3. What is the group of senior ministers called?

4. What is the head of the government known as?

5. What job does the civil service do?

6. Which three institutions were formed after devolution?

7. Can you name the prime minister we have today?

8. Can you name any other senior ministers?

National Government Quiz Answers

1. Where are the laws of Great Britain made?

Parliament

2. What is the group of people with the authority to govern the country called?

Government

3. What is the group of the senior ministers called?

Cabinet

4. The head of the government is known as what?

Prime minister

5. What job does the civil service do?

The civil service helps with administration of government policies.

6. What three institutions were formed after devolution?

The Scottish Parliament, the National Assembly of Wales and the Northern Ireland Assembly.

7. Can you name the prime minister we have today?

Children should accurately name the current prime minister.

8. Can you name any other senior ministers?

Answers may vary, but should accurately name some senior ministers from the current government.